

Cedar City Arts Council Literary Group to meet.

The Literary Group sponsored by the Cedar City Arts Council will have its next meeting on Wednesday, May 7th at the Cedar City Library in the Park. The gathering time is 7pm. The author under study during this session is C.S. Lewis. Participants should read The Great Divorce and your choice of one of his many other works to share with the group. This is the third year for the lively and loyal readers of the Cedar City Arts Council Literary Group.

The schedule includes meetings every other month, alternating works of fiction and non-fiction. The library provides a comfortable, centrally located meeting space to encourage anyone interested to participate. Questions and information will be addressed by Mary Anne Anderson at 865-6882.
